

SCHOOL OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Student / ID#

Program, Plan

Sub Plans

Req. Term

A&S GR: Interdisciplinary Studies, MAIS IDSSTDMAISAMST

American Studies

2016-2017

requirement		course	credit	restrictions
	Methods in American Studies (AMST 6316)		3	9 s.h. of core requirements
	Critical Theory		3
	American Thought: Studies in Ideology		3
concentration	American Studies		3	Concentration AMST Options: AMST 6314 Modern, Social, Political, and Cultural History: 1600-1865, AMST 6315 Modern, Social, Political, and Cultural History: 1865-present, AMST 6310 American Philosophy, AMST 6312 Studies in Gender and Sexuality in America, AMST 6313 Studies in Ethnicity, Race, and Nationality in America, AMST 6311 Studies in Popular Culture and Technology, and AMST 6300 Special Topics in American Studies.
			3
			3
			3
			3
Electives	History, English, or Communications			Elective Options: 12 semester hours in either Communication, English, History.
	Optional electives for students with fewer than maximum allowance within each concentration. Electives are not required; however, up to 6 s.h. are applicable by advisement.	-		0
		-
PROJECTED TOTALS:			36

- 1) A minimum of 36 graduate semester hours (s.h.) with a final grade of at least a B in each course is required.
- 2) The general academic standard regarding grades of C is not applicable within the MAIS program: credit towards completion of the MAIS program is not awarded for grades below B.
- 3) 15 s.h. maximum in AMST.